- Had to "guess" at what transactions a joint owner has made?
- Had a transaction denied or turned down at checkout?
- Had the embarrassment and expense of a returned check?

OOPS!™ Can Mean . . .

- You may avoid high charges from merchants for returned checks.
- You may avoid the embarrassment and inconvenience of denied purchases and dishonored checks.

It is this Bank's ("we, us, or our") policy to comply with applicable laws, rules and regulations, and to conduct business in accordance with strict safety and soundness standards. A non-sufficient funds (overdraft/negative balance) may result from: A) The payment of checks, electronic funds transfers, or other withdrawal requests you initiate; B) Payments authorized by you; C) The return, unpaid, of items deposited by you; D) Charging your account for our applicable service charges and fees; E) The deposit of items to your account which, according to our Funds Availability Policy, are treated as not yet "available". We are not obligated to pay any item initiated for payment against your account if your account does not contain sufficient collected funds.

Rather than automatically returning, unpaid, any non-sufficient funds items that you may have, if your "eligible account type" has been open for at least thirty (30) days and thereafter you maintain your account in good standing, which includes at least: (A) Continuing to make deposits consistent with your past practices, (B) You are not in default on any loan obligation to us, (C) You bring your account to a positive balance (not overdrawn) immediately or as soon as possible and at least once every thirty (30) days, (You have no legal right to defer payment of your outstanding overdrafts including our fees) and (D) Your account is not the subject of any legal or administrative order or levy, such as bankruptcy or a tax lien, we will consider, without obligation on our part, approving your reasonable overdrafts up to your assigned OOPS! limit. This discretionary* service will generally be limited to an $800 overdraft (negative) balance for eligible personal checking accounts to include Free, Relationship, Power, and Connections Club Checking or a $1,500 overdraft (negative) balance for business checking accounts to include Non-Profit and Basic Business Checking. Our normal fees and charges including, without limitation, our non-sufficient funds/overdraft fees (currently $27.00 per non-sufficient funds item) as set forth in our fee schedules will be included in these limits and will be charged for each transaction presented for payment against non-sufficient funds. We will charge our normal fee whether we approve the item for payment or not.

We may refuse to pay an overdraft for you at any time, even though your account is in good standing and even though we may have previously paid overdrafts for you. You will be notified by mail of any non-sufficient funds items paid or returned that you may have; however, we have no obligation to notify you before we pay or return any item. The amount of any overdrafts including our fees that you owe us shall be due and payable immediately. If there is an overdraft paid by us on an account with more than one (1) owner on the signature card, each owner, and agent if applicable, drawing/presenting the item creating the overdraft, shall be jointly and severally liable for such overdrafts including our fees.
